

The first part of the paper is a list of names of persons who have been admitted to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1850. The names are listed in alphabetical order, and each name is followed by the name of the town or place where the person resides. The list includes names such as A. B. Smith, J. D. Jones, and C. E. Brown. The list continues for several pages, covering a wide range of names and locations.
 The second part of the paper is a list of names of persons who have been admitted to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1850.
 The names are listed in alphabetical order, and each name is followed by the name of the town or place where the person resides. The list includes names such as F. G. White, H. I. Black, and K. L. Green. The list continues for several pages, covering a wide range of names and locations.

The third part of the paper is a list of names of persons who have been admitted to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1850.
 The names are listed in alphabetical order, and each name is followed by the name of the town or place where the person resides. The list includes names such as M. N. Blue, O. P. Yellow, and Q. R. Purple. The list continues for several pages, covering a wide range of names and locations. The fourth part of the paper is a list of names of persons who have been admitted to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1850. The names are listed in alphabetical order, and each name is followed by the name of the town or place where the person resides.
 The list includes names such as S. T. Red, U. V. Orange, and W. X. Grey.
 The list continues for several pages, covering a wide range of names and locations. The fifth part of the paper is a list of names of persons who have been admitted to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1850. The names are listed in alphabetical order, and each name is followed by the name of the town or place where the person resides.
 The list includes names such as Y. Z. White, A. B. Black, and C. D. Green.
 The list continues for several pages, covering a wide range of names and locations.

The sixth part of the paper is a list of names of persons who have been admitted to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1850.
 The names are listed in alphabetical order, and each name is followed by the name of the town or place where the person resides. The list includes names such as E. F. Blue, G. H. Yellow, and I. J. Purple. The list continues for several pages, covering a wide range of names and locations. The seventh part of the paper is a list of names of persons who have been admitted to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1850. The names are listed in alphabetical order, and each name is followed by the name of the town or place where the person resides.
 The list includes names such as K. L. Red, M. N. Orange, and O. P. Grey.
 The list continues for several pages, covering a wide range of names and locations. The eighth part of the paper is a list of names of persons who have been admitted to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1850. The names are listed in alphabetical order, and each name is followed by the name of the town or place where the person resides.
 The list includes names such as Q. R. White, S. T. Black, and U. V. Green.
 The list continues for several pages, covering a wide range of names and locations. The ninth part of the paper is a list of names of persons who have been admitted to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1850. The names are listed in alphabetical order, and each name is followed by the name of the town or place where the person resides.
 The list includes names such as W. X. Blue, Y. Z. Yellow, and A. B. Purple.
 The list continues for several pages, covering a wide range of names and locations. The tenth part of the paper is a list of names of persons who have been admitted to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1850. The names are listed in alphabetical order, and each name is followed by the name of the town or place where the person resides.
 The list includes names such as C. D. Red, E. F. Orange, and G. H. Grey.
 The list continues for several pages, covering a wide range of names and locations.

4

Handwritten text in the top left corner, possibly a list or notes, including the name "William King" at the bottom of the block.

Handwritten text in the top right corner, appearing to be a signature or a short note.

1115